PORTLAND ADVERTISER.

IN answer to the many inquiries which are put to us daily, by our friends—such as, what arrangements have you made to collect the Legislative news—will not your paper lose much of its interest in consequence of the removal of the seat of Government to Portland? &c.—we consider it our duty to say, for the information of our readers, and for our own interest, that we have made such arrangements as we feel warranted in saying, that our paper will lose none of its value, although the Legislature may not sit in Portland the approaching winter. We shall be able to furnish the proceedings of that body, daily, and we contemplate having a correspondent in Augusta, who will give us a review of the proceedings, from week to week, in an impartial and correct manner—thus furnishing our readers with materials for approving of or disapproving of their doings, as well as if they were present to hear and see for themselves. In addition to this arrangement, Mr. Brooks, the gentleman who has superintended the editorial department of the Advertiser for the two past years, has yielded to our earnest solicitations to spend the winter in Washington, solely to collect political and other interesting matter for the Advertiser, and to transmit the same in the form of letters from Washington, as often as subjects worthy of notice occur. This arrangement, we think, cannot fail to be acceptable to our readers—particularly at the approaching session of Congress, when so many important subjects will be presented for consideration; subjects too, of powerful interest, both to the political and mercantile community. While we are thus making arrangements, more particularly to gratify our political readers, we shall endeavor not to be behind our contemporaries in collecting the news of the day, both foreign and domestic. A full and correct shipping list will also continue to be furnished by an experienced hand, engaged expressly for this purpose. The Prices Current will also be published each week, carefully corrected and revised.

While we are thus endeavoring to deserve, we trust we shall receive, a continuance of that liberal patronage which has been extended towards us the three past years, so that we may be encouraged to sustain the heavy expenses that we shall necessarily incur in carrying our purposes into effect.

Gentlemen who wish to become subscribers, are requested to be particular in designating whether it is the daily, semi-weekly, or weekly Advertiser, that they intend to order. The daily is $5 per year, the semi-weekly 3,50, and the weekly $2, if paid within a year. The weekly Advertiser is made up of selections from the daily and semi-weekly Advertisers, and is particularly intended for the country.

Richmond, Nov. 21, 1831. 47*

To the Honorable JEREMIAH BAILEY, Esquire, Judge of Probate within and for the county of Lincoln:

RESPECTFULLY represents John Page of Bowdoinham, in the county of Lincoln, Administrator of the estate of JAMES WOODWARD, late of Bowdoinham, in said county, deceased, that the personal estate of the said deceased is not sufficient to the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, to answer the just debts which he owed. Said Page therefore prays that he may be empowered and licensed to sell so much of the real estate of the said deceased as may be sufficient to raise the said sum, with incidental charges. And said Administrator further represents that a partial sale of said real estate would greatly injure the residue, therefore the said Administrator prays he may be empowered and licensed to sell the whole of said real estate, at public auction or private sale.

JOHN PAGE.

LINCOLN ss.—At a Probate Court held at Topsham, within and for the county of Lincoln, on the twenty-second day of August, A. D. 1831.

On the foregoing petition, Ordered, That the said Petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said estate, to appear at a Court of Probate to be holden at Topsham on the third Tuesday of February next, by causing a copy of said Petition with this Order to be published three weeks successively previous to said Court in the Christian Intelligencer, printed at Gardiner.

J. BAILEY, Judge of Probate.
